Thou didst delight my eyes      Yet who am I not first nor last object that dost once dream of thee for prize nor this the only time      Thou dost set love to rhyme

Bis

Thou didst delight my ear: Ah! little praises— Thy voice make other hearts re-voice make all ears glad that hear

And shouting joy! but yet O song, do not for- get for what wert thou to me How shall I say It the best The moon that pined her
